

Feast of St Andrew Corsini - 4th Feb. 2013

The next issue of Apropos - No 30-31 is a double issue. The reason for this will be clear from the editorial. It will also be the last issue as we have also ceased publication with this issue. The reasons for that too will be explained in the editorial.

We may continue to publish material on our website from time to time from contributors and the location of such will be indicated in this blog.

Apropos 30-31 will be posted within the next 3-4 days.
